Star's Songs Well Received. Jack Wilson a Riot

KITTY GORDON HEADS

Keith's - Kitty Gordon, the smart stage and screen actress, supported by a well-balanced company, in "A Cycle of Songs and Dances," heads the bill this week. Miss Gordon confined herself to songs entirely, and by so doing disappointed many who expected some emotional acting. She was, however, pronounced success in her chosen program and was assisted by others in her company with good effect.

Marvel, the dancing phenomenon, made a decided hit. Although deaf and dumb, he is able to follow the music by the vibrations of the different instruments. The others in Miss Gordon's company are Miss Mabel James, Miss Ida Clement, Miss Elsie Neville and Burton Brown at the piano.

Jack Wilson, ably assisted by Frank Griffith and Vera Beresford, presented a skit called "The Surprise," which overflowed with substantial laughs. As which Wallace Reid has had so much a comedian Jack had a perfect batting average. The skit was a riot from start to finish and is especially featured by the return of Miss Gordon to the stage.
